THE WONDER OF THE FLOWER WORLD. The Agave, American Aloe, or "Century Plant," is not only one of the most astonishing USUAL, WITHOUT INTERRUPTION.

WAN & CO'S Lotteries are legal, and authorized by the State of Georgia! The reputation of living a bundred years, at the late attempt to injure our firm has shown that expiration of which it bursts into a perfect glo-Agave is found throughout the tropical portions of the American continent, from the plains almost on a level with the sea to mountain elevations of ten thousand feet. But from these regions it has been carried to the gardens of the temperate zone. The story of its longevity is not precisely consistent with the trath. In hot climates the plant grows rapidly and soon completes its term of existence; but in colder regions, or where it has the careful tending of a skilful gardener, it has been known to reach the age of seventy years. The Agave has a short, cylindrical, woody stem, which is terminated by long spiny leaves of a blueish green color. Few of the leaves wither away before the plant has attained its maturity. Having acquired its full growth it shoots up a gigantic flower, surrounded with a multitude of branches, arranged in pyramidal form on which the greenish yellow flowers continue to bloom for two or three months. After this majestic effort the plant dwindles and withers away to
